

amendment? Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: I intend to call the question on the Chambers amendment.

SENATOR LABEDZ: The question has been called on the Chambers amendment. All those in favor...do I see five hands? I see five hands. All those in favor of ceasing debate vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Madam President.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Debate has been ceased. Senator Chambers, closing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam Chairperson, I am going to ask unanimous consent to withdraw that amendment and go with Senator Haberman's which is drafted...I think he said he lifted it from New Jersey statute. It has better language and I think it will cover the territory better so I am asking unanimous consent to withdraw mine. Then I will close and take a vote on it.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator Marsh, I believe that Senator Chambers can withdraw his amendment at any time. It is withdrawn.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Haberman and Chambers would now move to amend the Beutler, Vard Johnson, Hoagland amendment. Senator, would you like me to read. I am not sure copies have been distributed. I believe they are being distributed if they are not there now, Senator.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Yes, before you you have a copy of my amendment. It is copied from the New Jersey law and it merely says that the failure to wear a safety seat belt system, in violation of this act, shall not be considered evidence of negligence nor limit liability of an insurer nor diminish recovery for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or operation of a passenger automobile. In no event shall failure to wear a safety seat belt system be considered as contributory negligence, nor shall the failure
